Methodists to Build New Church

The members of the Methodist church held a meeting last Sunday at the close of the morning preaching service at which they discussed plans for altering and repairing the church building. After the water from the recent flood had run out of the basement it was found that the foundation of the building was in a very bad condition and would need immediate repair. The studding, mudsills and floor are completely rotted out and the building is gradually settling. The structure is otherwise in excellent condition.

At the meeting on Sunday morning a committee of eight was appointed to act with the trustees in formulating plans for rebuilding. The trustees of the church are W. H. Stuart, C. E. Hanger, E. R. Kennedy, S. G. Rodeck, G. L. Beacock, W. H. Hinde and Mr. Keith. The committee of eight were George Page, Henry Schmackenberg, Will E. Wright, R. Alison, Miss Mary Lewis, Mrs. J. C. Ainsley, Mrs. G. L. Beaver and Mrs. H. Trezona.

At a meeting on Wednesday evening the pastor presented two sets of plans; one provided for lowering the building on the present site and placing a good foundation under it, and also constructing an addition on the west side to be used by the primary department of the Sunday school. The other plan was to move the building back, turn it around, add on at the west end for a primary room, and lay the foundation in front for a new auditorium. The latter to be erected as soon as the money is available. The greater number of those who have expressed themselves seem to favor the latter plan.

Lincoln Temperance Service

A delightful and impressive service was held at the Congregational Sunday school last Sunday. In company with thousands of Sunday schools through the land, they celebrated the Lincoln Temperance Sunday with a special program. The room was beautifully decorated with flowers while the walls were covered with flags. A large picture of President Lincoln was given a prominent place facing the audience. On the platform was a framed painting of Abraham Lincoln as he was in 1846 when he persuaded Cleophas Breckenridge, a lad of ten years, to sign the pledge. This pledge was one written by Lincoln himself. This painting was unveiled by Master Harry Parso, the same age as young Breckenridge when he signed the pledge. Copies of the Lincoln Pledge were then passed and nearly four-score were signed, which will soon be made up to over 100. Other special features of the service were: A piano solo by Miss Gladys Townsend, a song with whistling chorus by the primary department, the reading of a letter to the Sunday school from President Wm. Taft, a copy of which appears below; and a talk to the boys and girls by one of the comrades of the G. A. R., Mr. Preston, who had seen President Lincoln personally many times. A generous offering was sent East to help purchase a modern printing press to be known as the "Marion Lawrence Press," named from the General Secretary of the International Sunday School Association. The painting of Lincoln and the lad Breckenridge will be hung in the Sunday school rooms of the church.

THE WHITE HOUSE,

My dear Young Friends:

The excessive use of intoxicating liquor is the cause of a great deal of the poverty, degradation, and crime of the world, and one who abstains from the use of such liquor avoids a dangerous temptation. Abraham Lincoln showed that he believed this in writing out for his boy friends the pledge of total abstinence so often quoted. Each person must determine for himself the course he will take in reference to his tastes and appetites; but those who exercise the self-restraint to avoid altogether the temptation of alcoholic liquor are on the safe and wiser side.

Sincerely yours,
WM. H. TAFT.

A Children's Entertainment

The primary department of the Methodist Sunday school has prepared an excellent entertainment to be presented to the public in the old Y. M. C. A. building tonight. The little tots are full of happy anticipations at the thought of doing stunts before papa and mamma and the other big folks, and no doubt the grown ups will be out in large numbers and will greatly enjoy the affair. The admission will be 10 and 15 cents, and the proceeds will be used to buy necessary equipment for the work of the department. Miss Mary Clark is the superintendent and she has done excellent work with the children until the school now has a primary department which any church would be proud of.

Mr. Garcia Moving House

Mr. A. S. Garcia has been at work this week moving his house onto the lot Mr. Miracle recently purchased from E. R. Preston, on S. Second St. Mr. Garcia was probably the heaviest looser of any individual in town, his lot having been almost entirely washed away by the flood waters. Had not prompt action been taken the house itself would have gone over the bank. His loss will amount to about $1000. Mr. and Mrs. Garcia had a very nice little home on which they had spent much time and money in beautifying the grounds with flowers and shrubbery.

We Are After You

Delinquent subscribers will soon receive a statement showing their standing with the paper. A weekly newspaper can be run successfully only on a cash-in-advance basis. All our bills are supposed to be paid weekly or monthly and if any considerable number of subscribers are in arrears it necessarily embarrasses the business manager. If everybody will help a little—it's less than two cents per week—the town can maintain a paper that it need not be ashamed of.

Only a few Girl Graduate books left at the Press office. No more will be made up this year.

One of the important things installed in our new bank building for the use and convenience of our patrons will be a system of modern safe deposit boxes.

Easy of access, strictly private, protected by a strong reinforced burglar proof, fire proof vault, lined by the most modern electrical protection system to be had.

It is our desire to have our patrons to avail themselves of this opportunity of procuring a strong box accessible and convenient at all times.

The rental will be reasonable and within the reach of all. Call and let us place your name on our list.

San Francisco.—The mobilization of American troops along the Mexican border by President Taft has sent the prices of meat in this city higher than ever was known before in the history of the State. Sacramento.—Governor Johnson has signed appropriation bills aggregating $543,750.81, of which $482,750.81 will be available this year and next. WILL PLANT MINES IN S. F. HARBOR IN PRACTICE DRILL

To Be Done Under Cover of Darkness
Night Rifle Practice at Forts.

San Francisco.—On April 1st three mine planting companies will begin work of mining the entrance to San Francisco harbor under the supervision of coast artillery officers in accordance with orders from the War Department. The mine planting order marks a more alert coast defense. The three companies of artillery comprise 300 men who will become skilled in mine operators under experienced officers. The planting will be done at night to give the men experience in mining a harbor under cover of darkness. In addition to this night practice on the rifles at the forts will be held. The operations of the coast defense will be under direction of Captain Johnson, district artillery engineer.

It is explained that there would be little danger to shipping except in the case of the failure of the mine control apparatus ashore. The mines can be discharged either with electric current or by contact. There is a device also which prevents them from being exploded by contact or otherwise.

Came Near Getting the Money.

San Francisco.—The mysterious adventuress who tried to impose herself upon prominent attorneys here in a deal to borrow $10,000 on the estate of the late Robert S. Farrelly, the Oakland banker, claiming to be his widow, is Mrs. Inez Peterson. She is the divorced wife of E. E. Peterson, formerly a prominent business man of Montana. Before her marriage Mrs. Peterson was Inez Davis. After the divorce she resumed her maiden name, went to Portland and became a well-known character of the night life there. She is said to have cut a wide swath about Nome during the height of the mining excitement in Alaska, and altogether is alleged to have borne a remarkably checkered career.

Bride Attends Public School.

Cincinnati.—Matrimony does not bar any one from attending the public school of Cincinnati, according to a decision rendered by Superintendent of Schools Dyer, when he reinstated Carmelia Stump, a 12-year-old bride. Carmelia has only reached the first reader, but when it was ascertained some days ago that she had been married, she was ordered to discontinue her attendance upon the public schools. For a week Carmelia missed her studies, but Superintendent Dyer's order returned her to good standing and she attended her class session.

Ansonia, Conn.—Thomas Fitzgibbons Sr. and his wife, Nora, were found dead in their home with their skulls crushed and the house on fire. Their son, Thomas Jr., is under arrest charged with the murder, though, according to his story his father killed his mother and he in turn killed his father. Masked Bandits Rob Car.

Los Angeles.—Two masked bandits, armed with automatic revolvers, boarded a street car of the Garvanza line and robbed the crew and five passengers of $50 cash and a small amount of jewelry. Killed Amendment Convention.

Des Moines, Iowa.—The Iowa Senate killed the resolution for a constitutional prohibitory amendment convention by adopting the committee report for indefinite postponement.

Bills on Criminal Procedure Are Signed by Governor

Sacramento.—At a joint meeting of a committee of the Legislature, it was agreed that the thirty-ninth session of the Legislature will come to a close at noon of March 28th. The Senate members of the joint committee believed that the session could be brought to a close Saturday night, March 25th, but the House members maintained that the Curtin-tax bill (Senate bill 13), to which 120 amendments are to be proposed, and the reapportionment wrangle, would keep the solons in session until the end of the month. The date, March 28th, was a compromise, and the current resolution to adjourn sine die will be made effective March 28th at noon.

Senator Black's bill (Senate bill 360) providing for the initiative, referendum and recall for all municipalities, received Governor Johnson's signature and becomes a law at the expiration of 60 days. The bill provides for recall elections of elective municipal officers any time after they have held office four months, upon petition of 25 per cent of the registered voters of the municipality. The officer against whom the recall is directed is made a candidate for re-election unless he states otherwise. Municipal legislation may be initiated upon 25 per cent of the registered voters, and unless the governing body passes the proposed legislation without amendment, it shall be submitted at a special election within 30 days. If the petition carries signatures of only 10 per cent of the voters, unless the proposed measure is adopted by the governing body, it shall be submitted at the next regular municipal general election. Like provisions regulate referendum elections on measures adopted by governing bodies.

Other bills signed by the Governor were:

Senate bill 723, making it a felony to smuggle drugs into county jails—Finn.

Assembly bill 388, making it a misdemeanor to misstate on any manufactured article or its container the conditions under which it was made—McDonald.

Providing that the District Attorney may amend an indictment or information to correct non-essential errors at any time before the trial starts, or, with the consent of the Judge, at any time thereafter—Boynton.

That when a witness in a preceding trial on an identical cause cannot be reached, his testimony in that trial or his deposition may be introduced—Burnett.

Providing that eggs or butter in storage more than three months shall be labeled with the date they were put in storage, when exposed for sale.

Several bills for the reform of the criminal procedure, indorsed by the Commonwealth Club of San Francisco, were signed by Governor Johnson. Among these were Senate bill 390 (Burnett), regarding the production of witnesses, and Senate bill 391 (Burnett), relating to the substitution of judges during the trial of a criminal action.

The Governor also signed Senator Boynton's bill, No. 388, providing that an indictment or information may be amended by the District Attorney after the defendant pleads, if in the discretion of the court it can be done without prejudice to the substantial rights of the defendant.

Assembly bill 253, appropriating $4000 for the dairy "revolving fund" of the California Polytechnic School—Beckett.

Diaz Will Agree to Terms and Peace in Mexico Assured

Washington.—Peace is assured in Mexico within the present week if certain influences now at work toward that end prove effective. With the arrival in the City of Mexico of Senor Jose Yves Limantour, Minister of Finance, President Diaz will begin conferences, which it is expected will result in the announcement within a few days of a reorganization of the Cabinet.

Minister Limantour will present an explanation of the demands of the revolutionists, and the changes in the official family of President Diaz, as well as the institution of reforms, are expected to appease the Insurgents.

In the meantime President Taft, who arrived from Augusta Georgia conferred with Ambassador de la Barra and there is good grounds for the assumption that the troops now concentrated in Texas immediately will begin a series of maneuvers and will return shortly to their posts. In addition, when conditions are normal in Mexico, a complete statement of the considerations that actuated the mobilization of troops will be issued.

Filibustering on the Mexican Border to Be Stopped

El Paso, Texas.—"Smuggling of arms and ammunition across the Mexican frontier from El Paso must cease."

This, in substance, is the order received by Federal officials here. It is supposed to have emanated from Washington on the representation of the Mexican Government that El Paso has been the chief point from which help has been sent to the Insurrectos and the place in which the revolution has been planned and fostered.

The new vigilance is believed to mean that any movement of, or the presence of any supplies gathered here will cause close scrutiny.

The assertion of Minister Limantour that hereafter Americans caught fighting with the Insurrectos will not be shown special mercy has caused consternation here. Fifteen Americans captured at Casa Grandes are still in jail at that place, according to report. The Mexican authorities say it is improbable that they were shot as bandits. The Insurrecto junta, however, still insists that it has reports from Madero indicating that the men will never be heard from.

Colorado Flood Water Menace to Imperial Valley

Yuma, Ariz.—The flood water of the Colorado river reached the United States Government levee work below Yuma and created great havoc, carrying away 60 feet of piling, a big pile driver, a steel dump car, and causing the loss of the life of one laborer, who went down with the wreckage.

So serious is the damage that it is doubtful if Colonel Ockerson, the Government engineer in charge of the work, will be able to make any further headway toward closing the break before the regular summer rise of the river comes. The work is being done under authorization of Congress, which appropriated $1,000,000 to build levees and dams below Yuma for the protection of the Imperial valley in California, which is below sea level.

Unless the break is closed within the next two months the river will pour its flood water into the valley, causing great damage.

Activity in the Army and Navy Attracts Many Recruits

New York.—Statistics gathered at the army and navy recruiting stations in New York City and suburban towns show that thousands of young men have suddenly developed an eagerness to join Uncle Sam's service. The daily number of applicants for enlistment has more than doubled since the orders were issued for the mobilization of 20,000 troops along the Mexican border.

During the first ten days of March more than 20,000 men applied in this city to join the army. This total is nearly doubled by the applications received in suburban towns. The applications for service in the navy are about half as numerous as those for the army.

Conditions for entering both branches of the service are being maintained very strictly, however, and only about 10 per cent of the applicants are accepted.

NO LAW TO PROHIBIT THE SHIPMENT OF FIRE ARMS

Courts Have Decided it is no Crime to Transport Munitions of War.

Washington.—Careful study of the neutrality laws has left the administration's advisers doubting if the United States can prevent the shipment of arms and ammunition to the Mexican Insurrectos.

In the Wiborg case, which was one of the filibusters to Cuba, the Supreme Court of the United States affirmed the opinion of the court below, that it was no crime to transport munitions of war to another country, whether they were to be used for war or not, and it was not an offense to transport persons intending to enlist in a foreign army and munitions of war on the same trip.

While no official opinion has been given, it is understood the department of Justice, drawing its views from decisions of the courts and from the apparently unanimous opinions of the department in the past, takes the position that there is no general law to prohibit the shipments of arms to the Insurrectos and that this is practically understood by the administration.

To Bridge San Francisco Bay.

San Francisco.—"The greatest bridge in the world" is the latest plan of the capitalists who hope to put new avenues of communication between San Francisco and Oakland before the 1915 fair opens. Allen C. Rush, an engineer, declared that if San Francisco and Oakland each will give 15 acres for terminal stations, he will erect a $160,000,000 bridge that will provide sufficient accommodation for all the transcontinental railroads, as well as for other traffic. Rush says he has sufficient backing to finance the project. There will be five immense piers, each 300 feet in diameter. The bridge will be 150 feet above the high tide. The plans provide for a patented device that will make possible the construction of a 4560 foot span.

Raisin Organization.

Reedley.—Active interest is being taken in Reedley in the $1,000,000 corporation which is being formed in the San Joaquin valley for the purpose of placing the raisin industry on a firm basis. A. L. Hobbs of Fresno presented the plan of the corporation to the meeting held here. He stated that when $750,000 had been subscribed a guarantee would be given to all growers that they would obtain a minimum price of at least 3 cents per pound for their raisins. Raisin growers look to the organization with hope for the improvement of the market.

$800,000 Land Deal.

Los Angeles.—Practically the entire towns of Calexico, Heber and Silsbee and large holdings in Imperial, El Centro, Holtville and Brawley will be known as the California Land Company, as the result of a transfer to a group of local buyers. The enterprise is said to have the backing of the First National Bank of this city. The sum of $800,000 cash is said to be involved in the deal.

Chicago, Ill.—"I suffered from a female weakness and stomach trouble, and I went to the store to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, but the clerk did not want to let me have it—he said it was no good and wanted me to try something else, but knowing all about it I insisted and finally got it, and I am so glad I did, for it has cured me."

"I know of so many cases where women have been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that I can say to every suffering woman if that medicine does not help her, there is nothing that will."—Mrs. JANETZKI, 2903 Arch St., Chicago, Ill.

This is the age of substitution, and women who want a cure should insist upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound just as this woman did, and not accept something else on which the druggist can make a little more profit.

Women who are passing through this critical period or who are suffering from any of those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of the fact that for thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills. In almost every community you will find women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Good Spring Tonic

"We have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla for a spring tonic and as a blood purifier. Last spring I was not well at all. When I went to bed I was tired and nervous and could not sleep well, in the morning I would feel twice as tired; my mother got a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, which I took. I felt like a new person when I had finished that bottle. We always have some of Hood's medicines in the house." Hilvey Roselle, Marinette, Wis.

There is no "just as good" medicine. Insist on having Hood's.

As One Man.

It was a story night, and the audience of Professor Cheatum, mind-reader and prestidigitator, was composed exclusively of men and boys. The lecture had begun at half past seven, and it was nearly an hour later when Professor Cheatum began his exhibition of mind-reading.

"There is a man in this hall," he said, gazing at the ceiling for inspiration, "whose mind I can read like a book. He means well, is a good father and a kind husband; active in the church and all town affairs. He has only one fault that I can see—he is forgetful."

"This very night his patient, hard-working wife asked him—"

There was such a sound of scuffling and tramping in the hall that the mind-reader paused, and lowered his gaze. The men were fleeing, and the boys were moving up toward the front.

"It's yeast-cake night," cried one small boy, "and the store'll be closed in ten minutes! Say, mister, read our minds before they get back."—Youth's Companion.

Lonely Isle of St. Kilda.

The loneliest inhabited island in the Western Isles is surely St. Kilda, situated some 85 miles west of Harris, says the London Daily Mail. A Glasgow firm of shipowners has received a letter from the clergyman located on the island, stating that the first mail the islanders have received since the Glasgow steamer Hebrides made her last cruise at the end of August was brought in by a trawler the other week. It was a day of great rejoicing. They are looking forward to the Hebrides' first visit in May with her usual complement of tourists and stores. All the natives, who number about 80, are in the best of health, and the weather has been exceptionally mild. The spinning season is in full swing. They are all working steadily away untroubled by the turmoil of general elections, and happy in their own little Atlantic kingdom.

Mule's Testimony Effective.

A most amusing incident occurred a short time ago in a Massachusetts court, when the convincing testimony of a mule led to the owner of the animal being fined $50. A driver had been charged with driving a galled mule. The prisoner had an expert witness who testified that the sore on the mule's back did not pain the animal in the least. The judge listened attentively to the long technical opinion, and then demanded to know where the mule was. It was harnessed to a wagon on the street in front of the court building. Ordering that court be adjourned for five minutes the judge proceeded to the street, and with the end of his cane touched the sore on the mule's back. The mule almost kicked the dashboard off the wagon. Once again the judge touched the sore and the frantic beast almost demolished the wagon with his kicking. The judge returned to the bench. The prisoner was called before him. "With all due respect to the expert testimony you have had introduced in your behalf to show that the sore on the mule's back does not pain him, I will fine you $50," announced the judge. "I asked the mule if the sore hurt him and he said it did."

The expression occurs so many times in letters from sick women, "I was completely discouraged." And there is always good reason for the discouragement. Years of pain and suffering. Doctor after doctor tried in vain. Medicines doing no lasting good. It is no wonder that the woman feels discouraged.

Wife Sentences Hubby.

West Hammond, Ind.—Mrs. Thomas Lickey, claiming her husband had hurled sundry breakfast dishes at her, caused his arrest. Trial was held before Judge Frank Green, who, after hearing witness on both sides, called the wife to the bench and said:

"Now, Mrs. Lickey, you have heard the evidence on both sides. I want you to be the judge, and you may impose any sentence on your husband in conformity with the law."

Lickey's face blanched as he said:

"Here's where I go to jail until warm weather."

Mrs. Lickey wept softly and said:

"Tom, I sentence you to ten days' separation from me."

Judge Green gasped and exclaimed:

"Woman's vanity! Is that the worst punishment you can inflict on your husband?"

Mrs. Lickey said it was, and her husband told the judge he would take a ten-day rest.

Puzzled Finnigan.

Casey decided to go into business, so he bought out a small livery stable and had a painter make a sign for him showing him astride a mule, says the National Monthly. He had this sign placed in front of it. His friend Finnigan happened along and stood gazing at the sign. "That's a good picture of me, ain't it?" asked Casey. "Sure it looks something like you," said Finnigan, "but who the devil is the man on your back?"

It was reported here this week that E. C. Hurlbert was considering starting a newspaper at Pacific Grove.

The price of meat is going up. It is now 11 cents wholesale and it is said it may reach 12 or 15 cents in the next two weeks.

The millionaire editor of the Morgan Hill Times, G. K. Estes, has just taken over the Morgan Hill telephone system. That put him in full control of the town.—Los Gatos Mail.

The Southern Pacific Company has just issued a new State map of California, 21x26 inches, with a brief description of its resources, attractions, topography and climate. The S. P. Co. is doing vast amount of good work in advertising and developing the state.

The wild birds of California are one of the State's important assets. They control vast hordes of insects, that would, without such control, destroy a great part of the soil products that add annually hundreds of thousands of dollars to the wealth of the State. That this control is more effective in many localities is because the wild birds have been, and are still being, destroyed by the ignorant, the mercenary and the wantonly cruel.—From the Arbor Day Manual, by Supt. Edward Hyatt.

Those who attended the aviation meet at San Jose witnessed a sight which will long be remembered. To many of us it was the first experience. It was our privilege to go inside the lines and examine the big white birds, and also hear the conversation with the birdmen. The machine looks simple enough and we wonder that somebody didn't get the idea before. A Campbell man says he is working out an idea that will counteract the influence of gravity in case of an accident in the machinery. Something that will hang under the whole thing and through which the force of gravity will not penetrate. We dare say that it will not be made out of lumber.

Wallace Onto His Job

Lieutenant-Governor Wallace's handling of the fight to amend the local option bill, led by Senator Juilliard, who represented certain winery interests at the hearing on the bill before the Senate Committee on Public Morals, opened the eyes of the Senate to two things: First, the Lieutenant-Governor will give the people of California a "square deal" so far as it lies within his power to do so. Second, he knows parliamentary practice, thank you, and his own rights as presiding officer.

If ever an effort was made to put a presiding officer in a tight place, Mr. Wallace was the object of such a move on the occasion referred to. Even some of his closest friends trembled for fear that, through the tactics employed by Juilliard, he would be tangled up. But one who has seen the Lieutenant-Governor in many trying positions in a city council knew that he would emerge triumphant—serene, quiet, placid, but with a new scalp in his fist.

Juilliard wanted first to get the Free Conference Committee of the Senate named by the Senate—an unheard of and utterly ridiculous proposal. Failing in this, he wanted the Senate to advise or request its President to name a committee favorable to the contentions of Boozie, that the unit in the local option plan be township instead of the county. Knocked out on this proposition also, he next asked that he be permitted personally to make a request along similar lines, which was granted, of course.

The joke in the matter lies in the fact that before this guerrilla warfare was inaugurated by Juilliard, President Wallace had decided whom he would name on the committee, and, knowing his rights in the matter, undoubtedly would have made such appointments regardless of any advisory action on the part of the Senate. Wherein we have evidence to back up our original proposition that he understands his job.—The California Outlook.

SPECIAL

Miss Alma Bennett of San Jose will preside at the Organ on this occasion.

The past week has been fine weather for spraying and many have taken advantage of it. Some have also been trying the sulphur method but not many seem to have confidence in it. Some experimenters have been successful with a mixture of lime and carbolic and many growers are anxious to see what it will do with the thrip.

The Scientific American of March 18th is devoted largely to cement and its uses. The many articles and illustrations will be of especial interest to builders. Mr. Edison is now experimenting on a "monolithic" concrete house; one made by pouring the cement, and which, when finished, will be one solid piece of stone. The growth of the cement industry is marvelous. In 1880 the output was 42,000 barrels, at $3.00 per barrel at the mill; in 1910 the output had increased to 74,000,000 barrels and the price reduced to 75 cents per barrel.

The Town Board of Los Gatos continues to have troubles of their own which at times are not only amusing but highly disgusting to many of the citizens. The people are getting their fill of the results of electing newcomers of whom they know little about to manage the affairs of government. Some time ago the board arranged for an election to decide who should fill the vacancy on the board made by the death of D. P. Simons. At a meeting last Monday night by a vote of two members they repealed the election proclamation, declaring that the call was illegal.

The Monasteries of Tibet.

Every Tibetan family is compelled to devote its firstborn male child to a monastic life. Soon after his birth the child is taken to a Buddhist monastery to be brought up and trained in priestly mysteries. At about the age of eight he joins one of the caravans which travel to Lassa. There he is attached to one of the local monasteries, where he remains as a novice until he is fifteen, learning to read the sacred books and perform the religious rites of his faith. The firstborn son, being thus sent into the church, as we should say in this country, the second becomes the head of the family and marries. Unlike some other semi-civilized races, these young Tibetans have the right of choosing their own wives. Nor can a Tibetan girl be married off by her parents without her own consent. The curious custom in regard to the eldest sons results of course, in nearly every Tibetan family acquiring the odor of sanctity, numbering a monk among its members.—London Telegraph.
